

SPARKLE OF SUNLIGHT - PAGE 1

Note: Out of respect for the sanctity of the holy Names of G-d, they are written and pronounced with a slight variation.

TRACK 1 Sparkle of Sunlight

The sparkle of sunlight from deep within our eyes illuminates the darkness of days with cloudy skies.
While waiting for Heaven to send forth the rain
the fountains of life are bubbling up again.
Although it is cold out it's nice and warm inside feeling so deeply the joy to be alive!
When music is playing the heart starts to smile;
the feet are dancing the dance of a child.
Pure and simple, it pours from the soul reviving the embers that warm up the cold.

TRACK 2 Waiting for You

I came to the garden waiting for You.
Sweet Lord of life, smelling the Divine fragrance, what else could I do?
And I've been waiting, Lord, I'm still here.
How could I leave, only to return to darkness and fear?
Feeding upon yearning, searching the skies,
heart in my hands and tears in my eyes.

TRACK 3 Waken in our Hearts

Waken in our hearts holy song and remove the tears that do not belong in the eyes of the children that long for You, whose every life's breath is a cry for Your love. -- other verses?

TRACK 4 Hanna's Song

A lullabye inspired by Hanna...from Abba (Daddy) to his little girl.

TRACK 5 Harvest Song

It says in the Psalms that those who sow with tears will reap joyous song.
May this melody bring joy to hearts laden with life's tears.

TRACK 6 How Long

Off in the distance, high up upon the rocks -- how far.
Silent with power, there waits the Dove of Peace -- how long?
Raising her young, teaching them to fly,
even when stormy winds fill the sky.

Off in the distance, dwelling upon the plain -- how far.
Silent with power, there waits the Man of Peace -- how long?
Raising his young, teaching them to dream to build a world yet unseen.

Off in the distance, high up beyond this world -- how far.
Silent with power, there waits the World of Peace -- how long?
When the Dove flies, floating upon the wind,
the fragrance of peace will fill the world.
Then will the Man of Peace rise to follow her,
across the plains of darkness
to the World of Peace.

TRACK 7 Must Reflect

The inner world of light and bliss must come to reflect in the world of form.
There is a palace by a flowing stream that sings this song daily, as it's flowing by:
"My joy is simple, I flow from land to land, feeding the thirsty with musical waters.
And though my song is simple, no one seems to mind,
for we are blessed with a joy Divine."

TRACK 8 Elijah and Elisha - אֵלִיָּהוּ וְאֵלִישָׁע

The words of this song are taken from the Second Book of Kings. This segment describes Elijah's last moments on Earth and the miraculous event of his departure. And thus begins Elisha's role of prophet -- leader of the Children of Israel.

TRANSLATION	TRANSLITERATION	HEBREW LYRICS
As they were walking along and talking, behold! A chariot of fire and horses of fire! It separated them and Elijah went up in a storm-wind to the Heavens. And Elisha sees and cries out, "My father, my father -- Chariot of Israel and its horsemen!" And he saw him no more, and he took hold of his own garments, and tore them into two pieces.	Vy-y'-hee hay-ma hol-heem ha-loh v'-da-bayr, v'-hee-nay! Re-hev aysh v'-soo-say aysh! TRANSLATION	TRANSLITERATION	HEBREW LYRICS
And he took Elijah's mantle, which had fallen off of him, and struck the water and said, "Where is the Eternal Lord, the G-d of Elijah?!" He also struck the water, which split, half going here and half going there; and Elisha crossed the river.	Af hoo vy-ya-keh es ha-my-yeem vy-yay-ha-tzoo hay-na va-hay-na; vy-ya-a-vor E-lee-sha.	וַיִּכֶה אֶף־הוּא אֶת־הַמַּיִם וַיִּחְצוּ הַנָּהָר וְהַנָּהָר; וַיַּעֲבֹר אֶלֵינוּ: 2 Kings 2:11-14

TRACK 9 The Rebbe's Niggun

The movements in this melody -- from joy to yearning and back to joy -- resemble those of various Chassidic Masters, known as "Rebbes". We can join Rebbes and disciples, who left the world and its difficulties for a few precious moments when we sing holy songs.

TRACK 10 The Sea

I knew the day would come when you would ask of me the truth;
but now, my loving child, you have brought a pain I cannot soothe.
I know you look to me to fill the darkness of your space, but, my loving child, all I can do is point the way.
Then one day, I pray, you will come to me without a sound and share with me the joy of all the beauty you have found.
